REAL WOMEN. REAL BREAKTHROUGHS.

I've tapped through 29 cravings!

Hi all! After last night's tapping circle, I've been thinking about my experiences with cravings and the things I have learned as I've worked through cravings. I'm convinced that cravings is 98% of my food/eating/weight issue, and I have a running list that I keep adding to and chipping away at. Since starting this program, I've tapped through 29 cravings and gotten them all to a zero! (Yay!) That's just over half of what I have on my list at this point.
